EXPLANATION OF NUMBERING.

110. KATHERINE⁵ FITZ RANDOLPH (44).

The first number is the individual descendant's own number; the number in parenthesis after the name is the number of that person's father; thus making it simple to trace lines back to Edward¹ Fitz Randolph, the progenitor.

Numbers in brackets [], refer to the list of authorities at the end of the volume.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I wish to thank those who have helped me so generously with their valuable records: Mrs. Harry Scidmore Fitz Randolph of Jackson Heights, N. Y.; Mr. John Insley Coddington of Arlington, Va.; Mr. Willis Freeman of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. Charles Carroll Gardner of Maplewood, N. J.; and Mr. John P. Dornan of Havertown, Pa.

Thanks are also due to the editors of the New England Historical and Genealogical Register for permission to include Mrs. Christian's article, "Nathaniel² Fitz Randolph of Woodbridge, New Jersey, Quaker, and His Descendants," - with many additions and corrections - in this genealogy of the entire family, and to Mrs. Joseph W. Greene of the New Jersey Historical Society, and Mr. Arthur S. Maynard of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society.

THE DESCENDANTS OF EDWARD FITZ RANDOLPH

EDWARD FITZ RANDOLPH, the Pilgrim, and the progenitor of the Fitz Randolph family in America, was undoubtedly the "Edward Fitzrandall," son of Edward Fitz Randolph or Randall and his second wife Frances Howis or Howes, baptised at Sutton-in-Ashfield, co. Nottingham, England, on July 3, 1607. "Fitz Randolph Traditions" by the late Lewis Van Syckel⁶ Fitz Randolph (No. 770 in this genealogy), gives much on the English antecedents of the family.

Among the seven hundred passengers who came over in the eleven vessels which comprised the "Winthrop Fleet" and which was known as the "Great Immigration" of 1630, was Edward Fitz Randolph, who settled at Scituate, Massachusetts. Pastor Lathrop's diary asserts that "the young Mas [Master] Edward ffitsrandolph built the 38 house in Scituate, Mass." He married in Scituate, May 10, 1637, ELIZABETH BLOSSOM, the daughter of Elder Thomas Blossom and his wife Ann Heilson (Eilsdon, Elsdon, Elston, Alston), who were married at St. Clements, Cambridge, Cambridgeshire, England, Nov. 10, 1605 [3, 111]. Elizabeth was born in Leyden, Holland, in 1620 [1], soon after her parents were forced, by the condition of the Speedwell - the companion boat to the Mayflower - to return to Holland, where so many of their persecuted friends had sought refuge with Pastor Robinson in that hospitable country.

Edward and Elizabeth moved from Scituate to Barnstable, Mass. in 1639, and his name appears in the list of those able to bear arms in New Plymouth in 1643. In 1649 Edward moved from Barnstable to his farm, "a great double lot," in West Barnstable, and in 1669, with his wife and six of his children, he sought a new home in Piscataway, New Jersey, leaving his son Nathaniel and his daughter Mary, wife of Samuel Hinckley in West Barnstable, and his daughter Hannah, wife of Jasper Taylor, in Yarmouth.

In the "Book of Records" of Nathaniel Fitz Randolph it states that "Edward lived to be nearly eighty years of age." It is often stated that Edward died in Piscataway in 1675 or 1676, which would make him only about 68 or 69 at his death, so it seems probable that he lived until 1684 or 1685. After Edward's death Elizabeth gave her four sons, John, Joseph, Thomas and Benjamin, on June 26, 1685 [6], the land she had located in her husband's name, and on June 30, 1685 [7], she married Capt. JOHN PIKE of Woodbridge, N. J. Julianna⁷ Fitz Randolph Wood (No. 188:i) tells us in her "Family Sketches" that Elizabeth "was buried by her first husband" in the west corner of what is now St. James Churchyard, Piscataway, N. J. During the Revolution, as the British troops came down King George's Highway (now Woodbridge Avenue) breastworks were thrown across the plot, and after the war was over and the ground leveled, no trace was found of the tombstones of either Edward or Elizabeth.

He married first, in Barnstable or Sandwich, Mass., in November, 1662 [2, 10], MARY HOLLEY (Holloway, Holway), born in Sandwich, died in Woodbridge, N. J., July 12, 1703, daughter of Joseph and Rose (Allen) Holley of Sandwich. Her mother, Rose (Allen) Holley, married second May 19, 1648, William Newlands, a Quaker. Nathaniel Fitz Randolph married second, at the Haddonfield Meeting, Haddonfield, N. J., Apr. 12, 1706, as her third husband, JANE (CURTIS-OGBORNE) HAMPTON, born at Bugbrooke, co. Northampton, England, 11th of 2nd month (April), 1661 [111], and died in Buckingham Township, Bucks Co., Pa. [13] in 1731. She was the daughter of Thomas and Jane Curtis, and widow of Samuel Ogborne and John Hampton, whose executrix she was Dec. 8, 1694. As the widow of Nathaniel Fitz Randolph she married, as her fourth husband, John Sharp of Burlington, N. J. Her own will, as Jane Sharp, of Buckingham Township, Bucks Co., Pa., was dated 8th of 6 mo. (Aug.) 1729, and was proved Nov. 13, 1731, and mentions her sons Samuel Ogborne, Joseph Hampton, Benjamin Fitzrandall, and daughters Mary, wife of Jonas Kemble, and Sarah, wife of Edmond Kinsey. The executor was her son-in-law Edmond Kinsey.

Nathaniel Fitz Randolph was one of the four who first asked for religious tolerance for the Friends in New England. In 1677 he, having joined the Quakers years before, and had in consequence suffered much persecution from the Plymouth Government, exchanged his house in Barnstable for land in Woodbridge, N. J. and in the year afterwards, 1678-9, moved with his family to New Jersey. He served as associate justice of Middlesex County, N. J., in 1688, 1692, and 1698; and in 1693-5 he represented Woodbridge in the Provisional Assembly. In 1683, on the death of James Bollen, first Secretary of the Province, he was one of the two guardians of his children, and, on the establishment of the Woodbridge Monthly Meeting of Friends in 1706, he became a prominent member of the Society, and for seven years the Meeting was held in his house, until the completion of the Meeting House in 1713, two months before his death.

Nathaniel³ Fitz Randolph was the author of the "Book of Records," now in the possession of Princeton University, which gives an account of the branch of the Fitz Randolph family to which he belonged. He also wrote the following account "Of the College at Princeton, New Jersey:"

"When it was reported that a Charter was granted by Hamilton our Deputy Governor for a college to be erected some where in New Jersey, & twelve trustees appointed, I was the first man that proposed to set subscriptions on foot Sd Tower, also I was the first man that drew a subscription for that purpose, also the first man that rode to obtain subscriptions, also wrote twenty papers for that purpose, and helped to spread them. And did obtain about five hundred Pounds as subscriptions under s^d Charter. Also after a second Charter was granted by Gov. Jonathan Blecher for a College in New Jersey and twenty five trustees were appointed, the old subscription was dropped. And I wrote about fifteen subscription papers more, helping to spread s^d subscription papers in which about seventeen hundred Pounds was obtained.

"I also gave four acres and a half of land to set the college on, and twenty Pounds, besides time and expenses for several years together, but whereas, I did sign but three acres in the subscription, so I took a receipt of some of the Trustees only, for the three acres of land to answer the subscription, and also the consideration mentioned in the deed I gave the Trustees for s^d College land, is one hundred and fifty Pounds, I never did receive one penny of it, that was only to confirm title."

(signed) "Nathaniel Fitz Randolph"

"Jan. 25, 1753, Gave a deed to the Trustees for four and a half acres of land for the college. This is the property on which Nassau Hall now stands." Princeton University writes:

"The four and a half acres of ground given by Mr. Fitz Randolph for the site of the College adjoined his own residence on the King's Highway, now Nassau Street and the Lincoln Highway, behind which was the family burial ground. When Holder Hall was erected on this site in 1909, several old graves were found. No less than thirty-two tombs were discovered, one of them being that of Nathaniel Fitz Randolph. The contents of the graves were carefully preserved in separate boxes and were placed in a vault in the wall of the Eastern arch of the building. A tablet to Mr. Fitz Randolph was placed on the wall. Also in his memory, a descendant (Augustus S. Van Wickle: see No. 255:vi) gave the Fitz Randolph gateway, the official entrance of Princeton University, which is opened only at Commencement and upon the occasion of the reception of distinguished visitors."

- i. GRACE,⁵ b. Feb. 1, 1703 [11]. No further record.

38. EXPERIENCE⁴ FITZ RANDOLPH (13), born Woodbridge, June 14, 1696; died there April 10, 1758. She first became engaged to Thomas Vail, as is shown by the following excerpts from the Woodbridge Friends' Monthly Meeting Record:

"Meeting held 20th of 4th month (June) 1717; John Lain and John Shotwell Jun. appt'd to speak to Experience Moores (FitzRandolph that was) to endeavour to bring her to a sense of her outgoings, first her Appearing before this meeting at Severall times with Thomas Vail declaring her intention of taking him to be her husband and not performing the same but on the contrary marrying Another man out of Unity of this meeting & not having the consent of parents...."

"Meeting 18th of 5th mo. (July) 1717: The friends Appointed to speak to Experience Moores Report they have spoken with her but that she at present does not seem to give so full Satisfaction as is desired, it is therefore left for her further consideration until the next mo. meeting And the Friends for that purpose before appointed desired to continue this case." [14].

Experience was married, therefore, shortly before June 20, 1717 [14], to SAMUEL MOORES, b. Woodbridge Aug. 29, 1694, died there Feb. 21, 1756, son of James² (Matthew¹) and Margaret (Craig) Moores. Administration on his estate was given May 31, 1756, to his widow Experience, but on Feb. 8, 1759 it was given to William Kent, the widow having deceased [111, 113].

Children, born at Woodbridge, N. J. (Moores):

- i. Mary, b. Oct. 20, 1719; died Nov. 6, 1726, aged 7 years.
- ii. Margaret, b. ab. 1721; m. 1, Woodbridge, Dec. 12, 1740, Samuel Carman; m. 2, May 1 (14?), 1747, Jeremiah Dunn, b. Piscataway Dec. 10, 1712; son of Hugh² (Hugh¹) and Elizabeth (Martin) Dunn, as his second wife.
- iii. Nathaniel, b. perhaps about 1723; apparently the eldest son; renounced administration of his father's estate, 1756. No further information.
- iv. Jonathan, b. perhaps about 1725; d. bet. Feb. 20, 1800 (date of will) and Mar. 19, 1800 (date of probate). Five children. Name of wife unknown.
- v. Grace, b. ab. 1727; d. Woodbridge Oct. 3, 1794, "in her 68th yr."; m. Woodbridge, Nov. 23, 1742, Jonathan Inslee, Jr. (Jonathan³ John² William¹). Had eight children. Their daughter Experience married as her first husband, Capt. Nathaniel⁵ Fitz Randolph, No. 118, which see [111].
- vi. Isabella, b. ab. 1729; d. Feb. 6, 1809; m. Aug. 16, 1748, Stephen Carman, brother of Margaret's first husband.
- vii. John.
- viii. Samuel. Samuel and John were minors in 1759 when a guardian was appointed, and were between the ages of 14 and 20 in 1762, when they asked for a settlement. So they were born between 1741 and 1748, and were much younger than their youngest sister, Isabella, born 1729. Samuel married at Perth Amboy, Jan. 24, 1759, Elizabeth Rochfort, and had six children.

39. NATHANIEL⁴ FITZ RANDOLPH (13), born Woodbridge, N. J. Jan. 5, 1700; living Jan. 11, 1748/9 when he signed a note accompanying the license of his daughter Grace to marry (N. E. Register, 97:332 footnote), no record of death. He seems to have had two wives, one of which was named Mary.

Children, all born in Woodbridge. Probably by first wife:

- i. MARY,⁵ b. July 4, 1721 [11, 14]. No further record.
 - ii. RACHEL, b. Apr. 13, 1723 [11, 14]. One of these two girls married a MARSHALL, and had a daughter Betsy (Elizabeth) Marshall, who eventually married John⁵ (Henry,⁴ John,³ Judge Henry²) Freeman [112].
 - iii. DAVID, b. Mar. 7, 1724 [11, 14]. No further record.
- 97a. iv. GRACE, b. ab. 1727.

Probably by his second wife:

98. v. PHERE, b. Nov. 26, 1736.

98a. vi. JOHANNAH, b. Oct. 8, 1742.

40. SAMUEL⁴ FITZ RANDOLPH (14), born Woodbridge, N. J., Dec. 16, 1694; married first, date unknown, FRANCES _____, and lived in New Castle Co., Delaware, where on Nov. 25, 1719, he and his wife sold property to Shobal Smith, husband of Samuel's sister Prudence (No. 40a). (New Castle Co. Delaware, Deeds, 41:135, [15]). It seems probable that Samuel's brother Joseph (No. 41) named two of his daughters "Francis," after his brother's first wife. Samuel and Frances are mentioned twice in the marriage book of Duck Creek, Murderkill and Camden Meeting: at Duck Creek 17th of 7 mo., 1718 at marriage of Nathaniel Lamplough of Kent Co. to Abigail Paxton, spinster, dau. of Abigail of George's Creek in New Castle Co.; and again on the same day at the marriage of Thomas Ellet of George's Creek, New Castle Co., and Mary Shaw of Duck Creek, same county. Samuel and his wife Frances returned to Woodbridge before 11 mo. 8, 1727, as on that date "Frances Fitz Randolph and Mary Fitz Randolph present John Atkinson and Susanna Hadden [Susannah 4 Fitz Randolph, No. 14:iii] to this meeting who declared their intention to marry." And on 10 mo. 19, 1728, "Mary Kinsey and Frances Fitz Randolph present Peter Wren and Ann Brotherton - the first time." Frances must have died shortly after this date, as in 1728 Samuel married at Woodbridge for his second wife. JOHANNAH KINSEY, b. Woodbridge, June 28, 1705, died there July 23, 1752, dau. of John and Grace (Hull-Fitz Randolph - see No. 13) Kinsey [113].

Samuel and his brother Joseph (No. 41) were captains of the sloops Sunflower and Elizabeth, plying between Amboy and Boston and the Carolinas - later to Jamaica and Curacoa.

Children:

By first wife, Frances _____. None of record, but it is possible and probable that there were some.

By second wife, Johannah Kinsey: born at Woodbridge [14]:

98b. i. MARY,⁵ b. Mar. 25, 1731.

ii. KINSEY, b. Nov. 12, 1732. No further record.

iii. SAMUEL, b. Apr. 17, 1734; married in Virginia [86].

99. iv. ISAAC, b. Feb. 11, 1735.

v. BENJAMIN, b. Sept. 9, 1737; died at Woodbridge Oct. 4, 1739.

(??) iv. JOHANNAH. This child is not usually included in the list of children, but this seems to be her proper place. She married by license dated Nov. 9, 1756, JAMES 4 (Jonathan 3, Jonathan 2, Henry 1) ROWLAND, and had children Abigail, b. Aug. 27, 1757, m. 1st, Stephen 6 (Samuel 5, Richard 4, Samuel 3, John 2, John 1) Carman; m. 2nd, Samuel Mundy; Samuel (named after her father?); Elizabeth, m. a Dunham; Mary, m. a Potter; Deborah; Meriam; Jonathan; and Jonah, m. Oct. 26, 1798, Abigail Freeman. James Rowland's will dated Jan. 25, 1803, pro. Dec. 8, 1807.

vii. BEVERLEY, b. Feb. 3, 1740. No further record.

viii. JOSEPH, b. June 18, 1742. No further record.

100. ix. JACOB, b. Jan. 8, 1743.

40a. PRUDENCE⁴ FITZ RANDOLPH (14), born at Woodbridge, N. J., 6 mo. (Aug.) 20, 1696; died 7 mo. 12, 1766 [14]; married, second intentions declared 3 mo. (May), 1716, SHUBAL SMITH, b. 11 mo. 2, 1692/3 [11], d. May 31, 1768; son of Samuel and Elizabeth (Pierce) Smith [113].

Children (Smith), born at Woodbridge, N. J.:

i. Mary, b. Dec. 27, 1716/7; mar. Jonathan Dunham, b. Woodbridge Nov. 7, 1710/1, d. Sept. 21, 1748, son of Benjamin and Mary Dunham.

ii. Elizabeth, b. June 15, 1718; d. Oct. 9, 1793; mar. 1st (reported at meeting held Dec., 1734/5), John Shotwell, by whom she had two children (Shotwell):

a. Elizabeth, b. Dec. 27, 1736/7 (probably died young).

b. John Smith, b. Dec. 8, 1738/9 (H. D. Vail Ms. copy of the record); married 1st, Sept. 22, 1756, Mary Webster, dau. of William and Susannah (Cowperthwaite) Webster, who was a younger sister of his father's 2nd wife. Married 2nd, May 23, 1782, Phebe Shotwell, dau. of Joseph and Elizabeth (Jackson) Shotwell, who mar. 2nd, Henry Moore. John Smith Shotwell made his will Sept. 13, 1800.

Elizabeth Smith and John Shotwell were evidently divorced (possibly before the birth of John Smith Shotwell), and she resumed her maiden name of Smith. John Shotwell mar. 2nd in 1743 (reported at meeting Oct. 11, 1743) Grace Webster, b. Sept. 9, 1725, dau. of William and Susannah (Cowperthwaite) Webster. John Shotwell's will, dated Dec. 5, 1776, named his son John Smith Shotwell, and then his children (by Grace Webster) Hugh, Jacob, William, Isaiah, James, Martha Shotwell, Susannah Townsend, Mary Stevens and Sarah Smith [113].

Elizabeth Smith mar. 2nd, marriage reported accomplished Feb. 20, 1738, Samuel Laing, who died July 23, 1742. They had children (Laing):

- c. John, b. 24 of 1st mo., 1739/40; d. Dec. 18, 1795; mar. Dec. 28, 1767, Susannah Webster, another dau. of William and Susannah (Cowperthwaite) Webster. She d. June 10, 1795 [113].

 - f. Bathsheba, b. Jan. 13, 1747; d. Feb., 1823; mar. Mar. 22, 1769, Jacob Shotwell, b. Aug. 29, 1746, d. Dec. 15, 1815, dau. of John & Grace (Webster) Shotwell.

 - i. Elizabeth, b. Nov. 16, 1754; mar. Mar. 25, 1772, William Shotwell, b. May (or June) 11, 1748, d. in Canada 1841; son of John & Grace (Webster) Shotwell.
 - j. Elijah, b. Nov. 19, 1756; mar. 1784, Isabella Sharp.
 - k. Thomas, b. Dec. 14, 1758.
- iii. Sarah, b. Sept. 12, 1720; d. Aug. 31, 1769 (Vail states this was death date of a daughter Sarah Vail, but it seems probable it was the mother); mar. 1st (reported Aug. 28, 1739) Thomas Marriott, Jr., b. Nov. 21, 1717/8, will dated 28 of 11 mo., 1760, proved Apr. 2, 1761 (Bucks Co. Wills, Book 3, page 52). Children (Marriott) [113]:

- a. Catherine, b. Feb. 19, 1757; will dated Oct. 19, 1801, proved Aug. 12, 1805; mentioned as Catherine Thorne in the will of her brother dated 1782; so she was not married then. She married _____ Stuart. In her will she speaks of her daughter Prudence Fitz Randolph; so Catherine might have married first a Fitz Randolph (by whom she had a dau. Prudence), and mar. 2nd, _____ Stuart; or she may have mar. Stuart and had a dau. Prudence Stuart who mar. a Fitz Randolph. This Prudence Fitz Randolph is not otherwise placed in this genealogy [113].

- b. William, b. Mar. 28, 1760; will dated Sept. 4, 1782, proved Jan. 21, 1783; married Elsey _____. No children mentioned in will.
- c. Prudence, b. Dec. 18, 1761; married _____ Runyon. Possibly this was a John Runyon, as John was a witness of her brother's will in 1782, and she was then married to Runyon.

41. JOSEPH⁴ FITZ RANDOLPH (14), born 1703 or 1704 at Woodbridge; died there 1740-1; administration dated Jan. 22, 1741 [28]; married at Woodbridge in 1731 [14], ELIZABETH KINSEY, b. Woodbridge, 1707, d. there Nov. 4, 1738 [14], dau. of John Kinsey and Grace (Hull) Fitz Randolph (see No. 13).

Joseph Fitz Randolph might have married second, his cousin MARY⁴ (FITZ RANDOLPH) THORN (No. 46), and had children by her; but this has not been proven.

Children, born at Woodbridge, N. J. [14]:

- i. JOHN KINSEY,⁵ b. Mar. 22, 1733. No further record.
- ii. FRANCIS, b. Sept. 10, 1736; d. Woodbridge, Sept. 15, 1737.
- iii. JOSEPH, b. Sept. 4, 1737; d. Woodbridge, Sept. 15, 1737.
- iv. FRANCIS (a daughter, but spelled that way), b. Oct. 26, 1738; d. July 6, 1796, aged 58 years; int. Woodbridge; mar. (lic.) Jan. 17, 1759, JAMES CROWELL. He died Nov. 28, 1805, aged 67 yrs., int. Woodbridge. He married second, Jane _____. His will, dated Jan. 20, 1801, pro. Dec. 12, 1805, mentions sons Joseph Randolph and John.
- v. ELIZABETH, twin, b. Oct. 26, 1738. No further record.

42. JACOB⁴ FITZ RANDOLPH (14), born Woodbridge, Mar. 23, 1708; died at Blazing Star, N. J., 1779/1782; will dated May 12, 1779, proved Apr. 27, 1782. He probably had two wives. The first is unknown, but the second was almost certainly his much-married cousin, MARY⁴ (FITZ RANDOLPH - THORNE - FITZ RANDOLPH - HORSEMAN) JACKSON, No. 46.

In his will Jacob speaks of his daughter, Mary Coddington. This has been universally accepted as the Mary Fitz Randolph who married first, lic. Oct. 16, 1756, Samuel Coddington, who died before July 29, 1757; and who married second, lic. Dec. 20, 1760, Gabriel Compton. But as Jacob's will was made in 1779, nineteen years after Mary had married Gabriel Compton, it is inconceivable that he should have called her Mary Coddington. And as Edward³ Fitz Randolph, No. 16, speaks of his grand-daughter Mary Coddington in his will of 1759, it seems certain that she was the one who married Gabriel Compton in 1760.

Children: 2nd, 3rd and 5th born at Blazing Star, N. J.:

- i. SAMUEL⁵. Probably the eldest son. It seems almost sure that he was the Samuel who married, license Oct. 20, 1750, MARTHA GACH.

- 102. iii. REUBEN, b. Feb. 3, 1733.
- iv. JOTHAM. Died about 1782, when administration was granted to Mary Fitz Randolph, probably his widow.
- 103. v. JACOB, b. 1737.
- 104. vi. JOSEPH.
- vii. MARY. She married first, CALEB JONES, son of Edward Jones of Woodbridge whose will, proved Apr. 1, 1762, names wife Mary and seven children under age, Edward, Jacob, Caleb, Catherine, Mary, Abigail, and Tabitha. This Tabitha Jones is mentioned in the will of her grandfather Jacob Fitz Randolph (No. 42), and also in the will of her uncle Joseph, No. 104. Mary (Fitz Randolph) Jones married second, _____ CODDINGTON [113].
- viii. JOHANNAH. Married at Woodbridge, license dated Dec. 30, 1769 [29], JACOB THORNE, JR. son of Jacob & Susanna (Shotwell) Thorne.

J., dau. of Jeremiah and Abigail (Jones) Bird. She married second, July 21, 1742, RICHARD CARMAN [29].

Joseph was a boat captain.

Thomas Hadden married second, license dated July 21, 1750, Margaret (Van Galen-Foster) Bloomfield, daughter of Laurens Van Galen and his wife Tryntje Elias Vreelandt (probably the dau. called "Merytje," b. Feb. 4, bp. Apr. 1, 1706 at Bergen), and widow, first of Stephen Foster, upon whose estate she administered Feb. 21, 1731, (NJA 30:184), and by whom she had a son Ebenezer Foster, the Loyalist; and widow secondly of Ezekiel Bloomfield (son of Ezekiel Bloomfield and his wife Hester Rolph, widow of Jonathan Dunham), whom she had mar. by lic. dated Oct. 18, 1744, and who died in Jan. or Feb., 1748/9. She had no other children by either Bloomfield or Hadden. She died Feb. 9, 1767, as sworn to by her son (NJHS Proc. N. S. 11:295/6). She was buried in Woodbridge; stone gives death date as Feb. 8, 1767, age 60. Thomas Hadden married third, by New York State license, Nov. 16, 1767, Catherine Stillwell. Thorne. The first intentions were published in the Rahway and Plainfield Meeting in 12 mo. 1728/9; and the second intentions 1 mo. 20, 1728/9. William Thorne died in 1735, and administration on his estate was granted to Mary and her eldest brother, Richard⁴ Fitz Randolph (No. 44) on May 20, 1735. Soon after she seems to have married second, a cousin whose surname was Fitz Randolph, but it has not been determined whom she married. This might have been JOSEPH⁴ FITZ RANDOLPH (No. 41). On March 16, 1744, Mary, listed as "Mary Fitzpatrick, Spinster," married for her third husband, MARMADUKE HORSEMAN, who must have been in his eighties. His will, dated Feb. 25, 1748/9, mentions his wife Mary. As Mary Horseman, Mary married for her fourth husband, license dated May 26, 1749, JAMES JACKSON, b. June 4, 1704. Administration on his estate was granted to his widow Mary on Nov. 6, 1750. It seems most probable that Mary married for a fifth time, and again to a cousin, JACOB⁴ FITZ RANDOLPH (No. 42), as on 7 mo. 18, 1764, "Mary Fitz Randolph is disowned for marriage to her first cousin." In his will, dated May 12, 1779, Jacob mentions his wife Mary.

Mary is mentioned several times in wills. Her brother Hugh⁴ Fitz Randolph (No. 16:ix) mentioned her in his will of 4 mo. 23, 1748, her portion to go to her children. In the will of her brother Edward (No. 45) is mentioned his "nephew, Edward Thorne, son of my sister Mary Jackson." And the will of her father, Edward³ Fitz Randolph (No. 16), dated Sept. 4, 1759, mentions his daughter Mary Jackson and her eight children.

*The Mary Fitz Randolph who married Samuel Coddington in 1756 has usually been considered a daughter of Jacob Fitz Randolph (No. 42), who speaks of his daughter Mary Coddington in his will of 1779. But Mary had been married to Gabriel Compton then for nineteen years, and it is inconceivable that Jacob should have called his daughter Mary Coddington under those circumstances. Besides this, Edward Fitz Randolph (No. 16), in his will dated Sept. 4, 1759, speaks of his grand-daughter (misprinted "daughter" in the wills of the New Jersey Archives) Mary Coddington. Edward had no other granddaughter Mary who could have married in 1756, as they were all too young (See 44:vii; 45:v; 47:v; 48:iv; & 50:iv). So Mary, No. 46, is the only possible child of Edward who could have had a daughter Mary born early enough to have married Coddington in 1756. Editor.

Many writers on early American furniture mention Benjamin Randolph. For instance, Carl and Jessica Bridenbaugh, in their "Rebels and Gentlemen," (1942; p. 205) say:

"The skill of the Philadelphia cabinetmakers from 1740 to the Revolution surpassed that of any others on the continent save possible the Goddards and Townsends of Newport...the masterpieces in mahogany by James Gillingham and Benjamin Randolph brought high prices in the local market, rendering their creators financially secure and socially important....They took great pride in their work and along with other artisans many of them chose the radical side when the time of political division arrived. Randolph was an active patriot....

"Like their fellow artists the portrait painters, the cabinetmakers assumed no self-consciousness about the special dignity of their profession. All of them from Benjamin Randolph down* made coffins, repaired furniture, recaned old chairs and did all sorts of odd jobs....Randolph, whose exquisite pieces formed a fitting background for many of Charles Wilson Peale's portraits of Philadelphia worthies, was also responsible for the sash for the new almshouse."

Thomas Hamilton Ormsbee, in his "Early American Furniture Makers," (1930, Tudor Pub. Co., N. Y.; pp. 46-49) says of Randolph's work:

"...connoisseurs of the Chippendale period of American cabinet making are now agreed that finer chairs were never produced in America. Randolph was a genius in his ability to work in the style of another and yet avoid the copyist's usual crudities and lapses." "There is documentary proof that he did work for Thomas Jefferson. Randolph was, in fact, the maker of the table upon which was drafted the Declaration of Independence."

The same book also reproduces Benjamin Randolph's label:

"Benj. Randolph
Cabinet Maker
at the Golden Eagle on Chestnut Streete
Between third and fourth Streets
Philadelphia
Makes all Sorts of Cabinet & Chairwork
Likewise Carving Gildings & Performed in the Chinese

Benjamin Randolph served in the Revolution. He is said to have had a colonel's commission [118].

One morning in the summer of 1777 General Washington and an aide drew rein before the Old Vail Farm, where was gathered quite a group of young men. The General inquired if any of them knew of a place in the nearby hills where he could observe the movements of the British troops without being seen. Edward Fitz Randolph stepped forward, and saluting, assured him he knew every nook and hiding place in the country, and would conduct him to where the entire valley could be seen below. This rocky elevation was later named Washington Rock, and is not far from Plainfield, if not now a part of it. Historians state that this was the turning point of the war.

In 1771 Robert moved with his family to Northampton, now Lehigh Co., Pa., and in 1773 to Northumberland County, then the western frontier of the state.

In 1776 he fled with his family for safety from the Indians to Bucks Co., but the following year returned to his home, and soon afterwards joined Col. Wm. Crook's regiment and fought in the Battle of Germantown Oct. 3, 1777.

Robert served only a brief time and returned to his home on the Susquehanna. Another raid was made upon the settlement by the savages, who murdered and pillaged along the entire frontier. Finding no prospect of peace or safety for his family he returned to his native state, entered the army, and served until the close of the war.

In 1783 he returned to Northumberland Co. and settled on Shemokin Creek, where he resided until 1789, when he came with his family to French Creek Valley, arriving at the site of Meadville on July 6. His son James was one of the nine who came in 1788 (May 12) and settled on the land selected by James, about two miles south of the site of Meadville, in what is now Meadville Township. Here Robert settled and resided until his death. Robert was in his seventy-second year when the War of 1812 broke out, and on the first call for volunteers he started for Erie, with four sons and two grandsons, to offer his services to his country.

the Middlesex Militia, then elected naval officer of the Eastern District of New Jersey on the 12th of December 1778. The day before his election the Council ordered that a sword should be purchased for him, as a fitting tribute to his patriotism, and this was later given to him.

On June 24, 1778 he, with fourteen men, made an attack on the enemy's guard, opposite Elizabethport. He had returned to his home, and in January 1779 was taken from his bed by his captors, and conveyed to New York and there imprisoned and cruelly treated, until May 26, 1780, a period of about a year and four months, at which time he was exchanged, it is supposed, for a Captain Jones of the British Army.

This is not a complete name index. It lists the name of every Fitz Randolph except those known to have died in infancy and childhood, also omits some who became adults but died unmarried. It lists the name of every husband and wife of a Fitz Randolph, including the husbands of Fitz Randolph widows.

The number after the name refers to the number in the genealogy, not the page. Fitz Randolph names also show the generation, in parenthesis, and the year of birth, if known. Children of Fitz Randolph women are not indexed unless they married a Fitz Randolph.
